2 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated.

3 All right, we're here on Residential Capital number 4 12-12020.

5 MR. KERR: Good morning, Your Honor; Charles Kerr of 6 Morrison & Foerster on behalf of the debtors.

7 Your Honor, we're here to follow up on the phone 8 conference we had Friday afternoon regarding discovery and 9 other issues related to the motion to approve the plan support 10 agreement. I think Your Honor has received a letter from our 11 firm over the weeks --

12 THE COURT: I read both letters.

13 MR. KERR: Okay, Your Honor. And therefore, I just -- 14 I think they help crystallize the issue, but I want to give you 15 just the background to show you what the issues are here we are 16 hearing this morning.

17 Monarch and Stonehill's counsel, in their letters, 18 make clear they're not creditors of the debtor; they filed no
19 claims to this court; and their dispute is solely with, I 20 think, the amount of the commutation. That's the substantive 21 issue that they're most concerned about.

22 And as Your Honor noted on Friday, that commutation 23 issue is something that is going to be addressed in the 24 rehabilitation court. It is not something that the debtor was 25 involved in negotiating and deciding upon, whatever. And

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

8

1 therefore, that issue will be heard before Justice, I think, 2 Ling-Cohan on August 6th in New York State Court.

3 They -- in the conference on Friday, I think they 4 acknowledged, Your Honor, that their ability to challenge that 5 commutation payment in state court is extremely limited. So 6 they decided to come to this court and try to challenge both -- 7 challenge here the approval of the plan support agreement. And 8 we think, Your Honor, for the reasons we discussed on Friday 9 and put in our letter, that effort is misplaced.

10 We believe that, if anything, their issues that they 11 are raising come closest to approval of the FGIC settlement 12 which is not on for June 26th. And they, we believe, will have 13 an opportunity at that time to raise whatever issues they want 14 to raise and protect their interest. But what they've done 15 here, Your Honor, is they've come in and sought extremely broad 16 discovery in attempting to, in our view, disrupt -- with all 17 due respect -- but disrupt the schedule that had been set back 18 on May 29th in the conference with Your Honor to get discovery 19 done, the very limited discovery necessary for the PSA motion.

20 So let me tell you what we've been able to do since 21 Friday night to crystallize it down. We had proposed to them 22 language to be added to the draft PSA order that we thought 23 would protect them and make clear that they would, by going 24 through the -- having the PSA motion approved would not prevent 25 them in any way from challenging the FGIC settlement motion as

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

9

1 well, which is really where I think these issues lie. They 2 rejected that language; they came up with other language that 3 was, frankly, very broad. The trustees were not willing to do 4 that; we were not willing to do that.

5 We then went on to talk about discovery. We've 6 agreed -- in a conference call we had on Friday night, we 7 thought we had agreed to the identity of what deponents would 8 be questioned here. They were going to depose four trustee 9 declarants. We had offered up Mr. Kruger who is a CRO, 10 although frankly, Your Honor, as I'll tell you in a moment, I 11 don't understand why Mr. Kruger's being deposed here at all. I 12 think that's just -- that has nothing to do with the issues 13 that they've highlighted in their letter.

14 They had limited the document request that they had 15 identified. We have agreed to proceed with a confidentiality 16 order. We've tried to negotiate. It hasn't been finalized but 17 we've agreed in the interim to proceed as all documents that 18 would be produced would be an attorneys'-eyes-only basis.

19 Yesterday, Your Honor, we got a letter -- we got an 20 e-mail from Monarch's counsel which I think they reiterated in 21 their letter to you, that they now, despite what we agreed to 22 Friday evening about only deposing the declarants, the trustees 23 and Mr. Kruger, if necessary, they now want to do additional 24 depositions, 30(b)(6) depositions, of FGIC and several other 25 parties including some of the professionals that were used by

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

10

1 the trustees and FGIC in analyzing their deal -- whatever their 2 deal was. They also indicated in their e-mail to us that 3 they're going to try -- they're going to come before Your Honor 4 to extend the schedule. I'm not exactly sure what that means, 5 but we are very concerned.

6 THE COURT: We are not extending the schedule.

7 MR. KERR: Okay. Well, that --

8 THE COURT: Full stop.

9 MR. KERR: Okay. So, Your Honor, what we're very 10 concerned about is that this is -- this long negotiated effort 11 to come up with a plan support agreement, which was part of the 12 mediation with Judge Peck involving all these parties, is now 13 going to be disrupted by this process where we think, in 14 fairness, Monarch and Stonehill's real concerns are, can be, 15 and should be addressed to either the rehabilitation court or 16 on the motion to approve the FGIC settlement.

17 THE COURT: Let me ask you, what are the issues going 18 to be for this Court in the 9019 of the FGIC settlement?

19 MR. KERR: I think the issue for this Court, again, is 20 not whether the commutation amount is correct; it's simply 21 whether or not the amount of allowed claim that the debtors 22 have agreed to, with FGIC as part of that overall settlement in 23 the mediation, is an appropriate allowed claim, Your Honor. So 24 it's a step removed from what I think is their real issue. So 25 even there -- that's why I said, if any motion even touches on

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

11

1 it, it's perhaps the FGIC settlement, but even there, that is 2 not what this Court's going to be asked to do and I don't think 3 this Court can do.

4 THE COURT: What is the state court asked to do with 5 respect to the FGIC settlement?

6 MR. KERR: It is my understanding that they're to 7 approve the FGIC settlement, but I believe that there -- that 8 is where that court will determine whether the commutation 9 payment, which is simply the payment by which FGIC is being --

10 THE COURT: Well, if I understand it correctly, the 11 settlement would cap the amount that FGIC would have to pay. I 12 forget what the dollar amount is, but --

13 MR. KERR: 253 million dollars.

14 THE COURT: Yeah, it would -- that's essentially 15 what -- or certainly an important part of what the FGIC 16 settlement would do, right?

17 MR. KERR: That is correct, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. And I would think that the 19 rehabilitation court, in determining whether or not to approve 20 the settlement, would hear from any -- I'm not sure exactly 21 what label applies to the investors, whether they're 22 beneficiaries of the insurance or what. If they go into the 23 rehabilitation court and object to the settlement because they 24 think that FGIC is not paying enough, that -- I mean, that's 25 what -- initially that's what I really wanted to focus on, in

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

1 part, because it seemed to me that's where that issue comes 2 front and center is in the rehabilitation court.

3 MR. KERR: I think Your Honor has it absolutely 4 correct; that is where that issue is going to be resolved.
5 Again, in the FGIC settlement, although the payment from FGIC 6 to the trustees is an underlying assumption of the settlement, 7 the settlement itself, and what the issue before Your Honor, in 8 respect of the 9019, is whether or not the amount of the 9 allowed claim agreed to by the debtor and FGIC is appropriate.

10 And so I think you're absolutely right, Your Honor, 11 that the issues that their letter they sent to the Court 12 indicates they're most concerned about should be and will be 13 addressed in the rehabilitation court, and especially with 14 respect to the motion to support to prove the plan support 15 agreement is not the vehicle to do that.

16 Now, they've indicated that what -- their attempt to 17 come into here is through the findings that are in the proposed 18 order. But those findings simply are the findings that are 19 necessary and were part of the overall negotiations by the 20 trustee to ensure that they could enter into the plan support 21 agreement.

22 THE COURT: Well, but I can certainly understand the 23 investor's concern if the findings by this Court in connection 24 with the PSA approval, if it gets approved, would have a 25 preclusive effect in state court, for example, when they go in,

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

13

1 if they in fact challenge the settlement in the rehabilitation 2 court.

3 So what's the -- and I read your proposed language and 4 I read their proposed language. What is your view about the 5 preclusive effect if this Court enters the requested -- you 6 know, approves the PSA and enters the requested findings? What 7 is the preclusive effect on the FGIC court, the rehabilitation 8 court, or on this court in connection with the 9019?

9 MR. KERR: I think that with the added language we had 10 suggested, the Court will be able to address on the 9019 11 motion. I think -- because we're going to ask you again to 12 make specific findings with respect to that.

13 THE COURT: Yeah.

14 MR. KERR: On the rehabilitation court, Your Honor, 15 I'm going to have to turn to the trustees on that. We're not 16 involved with that. I must say, I haven't really walked 17 through that all together. Again, the debtor is removed from 18 all that process and we --

19 THE COURT: Not completely, really.

20 MR. KERR: Not completely, Your Honor --

21 THE COURT: I mean, you're not removed --

22 MR. KERR: -- but --

23 THE COURT: You're not removed from the process.

24 MR. KERR: Not -- and I don't mean to say we're 25 removed, Your Honor, but that is not something -- I think I'd

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

14

1 turn to the trustees to specifically state what --

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. KERR: -- the view of that is.

4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

5 MR. KERR: Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Let me hear from the trustee's counsel and 7 then I'll hear from the investor's counsel.

8 MR. JOHNSON: Good morning, Your Honor. Michael 9 Johnson from Alston & Bird, and we represent Wells Fargo Bank, 10 which is one of the trustees that's involved both in the ResCap 11 proceeding as well as in the FGIC rehabilitation proceeding.

12 I just want to say at the outset, from the trustee's 13 perspective, we do want to emphasize that even though the 14 investors are not creditors per se in this court, we welcome 15 their participation in this process, and that's part of the 16 reason why I threw out --

17 THE COURT: They might be better off not participating

18 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: -- frankly. I mean, you know, because the 20 rules of that preclusion, if you've had a full and fair 21 opportunity to -- to be heard, you know, it -- so it wouldn't 22 surprise me if they argue no, they don't have standing here and 23 they'll fight it out somewhere else but --

24 MR. JOHNSON: Well, Your Honor, that's exactly -- when 25 we say --

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

15

1 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, let me ask you this.

2 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: How many of the trusts are wrapped with 4 FGIC insurance?

5 MR. JOHNSON: Wrapped with FGIC insurance?

6 THE COURT: Yes, yes, yes.

7 MR. JOHNSON: I don't know the aggregate number. I 8 could tell you, you know, for Wells Fargo -- do we know the --

9 MR. WEITNAUER: It's forty-seven in all.

10 MR. JOHNSON: That's right. Yeah, there -- thank you.

11 There are forty-seven in all, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Forty-seven, and that's out of what, 500 13 and --

14 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah.

15 THE COURT: What's the total?

16 MR. JOHNSON: There are several hundred trusts in 17 total.

18 THE COURT: Oh.

19 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah, several hundred trusts in total 20 is --

21 THE COURT: Come on up. I just --

22 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: I've been trying to get a full 24 appreciation of the -- what the --

25 MR. WEITNAUER: Your Honor, Kit Weitnauer from Alston

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

16

1 & Bird. The numbers do move around. You had the 392 --

2 THE COURT: Right.

3 MR. WEITNAUER: -- the original settling trust.

4 THE COURT: And then there were additional --

5 MR. WEITNAUER: There's another several hundred of so-6 called nonsettling trusts that are part of the initial trust 7 under the plan.

8 THE COURT: So what's the totals?

9 MR. WEITNAUER: And so I think -- wait. There's one 10 other --

11 THE COURT: Somehow I had 500 or so in my --

12 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: -- one other group which in -- 13 I think you're almost at 900 when you consider all the trusts 14 that have some role in the plan.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks very much.

16 All right. Go ahead, Mr. Johnson.

17 MR. JOHNSON: I was just saying, Your Honor, in terms 18 of the process, I think Your Honor has hit it on -- the nail on 19 the head. When we say "involvement in the process", we think 20 that there are appropriate stages where, if there is a concern
21 about the commutation payment in respect to the FGIC 22 settlement, the PSA motion and PSA hearing are not the 23 appropriate forum for that. There are, of course, the two 24 upcoming. There's one proceeding in this court which will be 25 the FGIC settlement 9019 hearing, and then there is the

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

1 proceeding that we've talked about earlier, Your Honor, in the 2 rehabilitation court itself.

3 And Your Honor, there was a question, I think, that 4 you posed as to what the -- what the process is going to be 5 there and what effect will be had -- you know, what effect the 6 proceeding in this court would have on what's going to happen 7 in that state court proceeding.

8 Your Honor, with the language that's been recommended 9 by the debtors in their letter, I think there is a carve-out to 10 insure that the objectants will have an opportunity in the 11 court -- in the state court to be heard along with anybody 12 else, Your Honor, who wants to be heard on the terms of the 13 FGIC commutation.

14 One of the things that the trustees and the FGIC's
15 rehabilitator insisted upon in connection with the FGIC 16 settlement agreement was that notice be given. And in fact, 17 the FGIC rehabilitator actually had an opportunity to be heard 18 on the substance of that notice that went out to the holders in 19 the FGIC-wrapped trust to make sure that in the context again 20 of that state court proceeding there was going to be full and 21 fair opportunity to be heard.

22 I believe, Your Honor, the deadline for the objectants 23 here and anyone else who has an interest in that settlement 24 agreement to object in the settlement court is July 3rd, so 25 there's still ample opportunity for them to prepare an

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

1 objection, and then there is a hearing that's scheduled in the 2 state court in August.

3 THE COURT: August 6.

4 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, correct, Your Honor.

5 But I think with the findings -- the modified findings 6 that have been proposed by the debtors, it insures that what 7 happens here on June 26th, does not have preclusive effect on 8 what happens on August 6th in the state court.

9 Your Honor, if I might be heard, there --

10 THE COURT: Just a minute. I want to make a note to 11 myself, okay?

12 Go ahead, Mr. Johnson.

13 MR. JOHNSON: On the specifics, if we are to proceed 14 with the discovery on the current schedule in connection with 15 the PSA motion -- and again, we think this is the wrong forum.
16 There are two other opportunities where these objectants can be 17 heard on what they think is wrong with the substance of the 18 commutation payment. But if it's to occur this week, Your 19 Honor, we do have a problem with what appears to be -- even 20 within the context of this limited discovery this week and 21 effort now being made by the objectants to double-dip on 22 discovery.

23 We had thought, Your Honor, because of a Friday 24 evening call that we had among the parties, we had agreed as to 25 who the deponents would be, and we received -- did receive

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

1 notice just yesterday that in addition to hearing from the 2 trustee's declarants, that is those witnesses who have 3 submitted now to this court declarations in support of the PSA, 4 they -- the objectants also now want to do 30(b)(6)
5 depositions. Your Honor, we think that's entirely 6 inappropriate and --

7 THE COURT: Why. Tell me why.

8 MR. JOHNSON: Because Your Honor, there -- it's 9 essentially going to be double-dipping. The issues that they 10 are going to cover or that are truly relevant to the PSA motion 11 itself would be covered necessarily by the declarants who put 12 in the declarations in support of the PSA motions.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, let me ask you, what do you 14 believe the -- I am being asked to decide on June 26th insofar 15 as the FGIC-wrapped trusts are concerned?

16 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, you are not being asked, 17 from what I understand it, to opine or to give your imprimatur 18 of approval to the substance of the commutation payment. What 19 is more important from the perspective of the trustees, Your 20 Honor, is, of course, the ruling that moving forward on the 21 terms of the PSA is in the best interest of the estates as well 22 as in the best interests of the holders, but it is not 23 necessarily, Your Honor, particularly with the carve-out that's 24 been proposed by --

25 THE COURT: I mean, look, it can be -- because this is

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

1 a staged process in two different courts, you know, 2 hypothetically -- I mean, I still -- I have to hear -- hold the 3 hearing and I have to -- there are others that may come up as 4 well with respect to the PSA. But if what the trustees are 5 asking is for me to determine in the first instance that they 6 acted in good faith in negotiating and entering into a 7 settlement, which may or may not be approved by the court and 8 may or may not be approved by the rehabilitation court, that 9 it's the threshold determination that, yes, for purposes of the 10 PSA, they acted in good faith in negotiating and entering into 11 the agreement and will get to -- this court and the 12 rehabilitation court will get to the issue of whether the 13 settlement should be approved applying -- you know, I'm not 14 sure what the standard is in state court. I've got a -- I know 15 what the standard is here.

16 You know, that's one thing, but if you're looking for 17 this order to carry additional baggage with it that would have 18 preclusive effect on me, you know, you're arguing as law of the 19 case, Judge, you already approved the PSA, in deciding whether 20 or not to approve the 9019, and then you go into state court 21 and argue before Judge Ling-Cohan that, Judge, I don't know how 22 there can be preclusive effect in state court; it's not a final 23 order, period. But -- so, you know -- but that's for the state 24 court judge to decide. But I'm not -- it wouldn't be clear to 25 me how it could have a preclusive effect anyway. But, I mean,

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

1 are you going to go into state court and argue, Judge, Judge
2 Glenn already decided in proving the PSA that, you know, good 3 faith finding therefore that's no longer -- that's not a 4 relevant issue for you.

5 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I don't think that is what 6 the trustees would intend, particularly with the language that 7 has been proposed. I mean, the language that's been proposed 8 by the debtors would carve out, in essence, the day in court 9 that these objectants seek to have in the state court such that 10 we could not run in with your order, assuming Your Honor were 11 to enter an order, along the lines suggested in the proposed 12 order for the debtors. We wouldn't be running in with that 13 order to say, you know, Judge Ling-Cohan, it's already been 14 decided, you cannot go over these issues again; that would not 15 be -- that would not be what the trustees would do or, I 16 think, Your Honor, could do, based on, again, the revised 17 proposed findings that are in the debtor's letter from this 18 weekend.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Let me hear from the investor's 20 counsel.

21 MR. BAIO: Good morning, Your Honor. Joseph Baio from 22 Willkie Farr and Gallagher --

23 THE COURT: Good morning.

24 MR. BAIO: -- on behalf of Monarch Alternative Capital 25 and Stonehill Capital Management. Your Honor, I believe that

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

22

1 what you have focused on is why we are here. And no offense, 2 we would rather not be here.

3 THE COURT: So why don't you not be here? I mean, 4 that's --

5 MR. BAIO: Because there will be findings, Your Honor, 6 that say that by entering into the PSA the trustees not only 7 acted in good faith but acted in our best interests, and we 8 think that's demonstrably false. We need discovery in order to 9 be able to demonstrate it. But for a court to have concluded 10 that in entering into this -- the PSA and eventually the 11 settlement, they acted in good faith, something that they want 12 in order to protect themselves. That's what they say in their 13 own submission. So they want to be able to insulate themselves 14 from our claims --

15 THE COURT: Mr. Baio, the real issue to me is what -- 16 no one seems to be disputing, at this stage, that you have the 17 right to oppose the 9019 here and approval of the settlement in 18 the rehabilitation court. I mean, isn't that the time to be 19 focusing on the issues that you're raising now?

20 MR. BAIO: But by that time, Your Honor, there will 21 have been a finding by this Court that by the trustees' 22 entering into the PSA, they acted in good faith. And much more 23 significantly for us, they acted in our best interest. That 24 will have already been determined in an adjudication before 25 Your Honor on an extremely accelerated basis where we still --

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

23

1 we don't have a single document from anyone on that subject.

2 We were not a party to the mediation.

3 THE COURT: Well, you knew about it. Come on. You've 4 been --

5 MR. BAIO: We tried --

6 THE COURT: -- sitting back on the sideline for a 7 while here.

8 MR. BAIO: Not really, Your Honor. We tried to get 9 in; we were unable to get into the mediation. We did have a --

10 THE COURT: Well, the claims that are being settled 11 belong to the trustee; they don't belong to you.

12 MR. BAIO: I understand. We're just talking about the 13 findings.

14 THE COURT: They don't belong to you.

15 MR. BAIO: We understand that, Your Honor. We really 16 are not objecting to that. We are objecting to the findings 17 that will preclude us in subsequent proceedings --

18 THE COURT: What are they going to preclude -- I'm 19 reading, I'm looking at the language that the debtors have 20 proposed and when I look at that language, I don't see how you 21 would be precluded. It says, "Nothing herein shall prejudice 22 any party-in-interest's rights to fully prosecute an objection
23 with respect to any proposed disclosure statement or Chapter 11
24 plan or any other motion including a motion to approve the FGIC 25 settlement agreement." And it goes on from there and it

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

24

1 repeats again, "Including the motion to approve the FGIC 2 settlement agreement."

3 How are you adversely affected if the Court enters, if 4 this language is added to any order, assuming -- and it is not 5 a foregone conclusion -- assuming that the Court approves the 6 PSA, if the language proposed by the debtors and apparently 7 accepted by the trustees, as Mr. Johnson indicated, how are you 8 adversely affected by that?

9 MR. BAIO: Because the previous finding, Your Honor, 10 will be by this Court by entering into the PSA, the trustees 11 have acted in our best interest. That will have already been 12 decided. At the 9019, it is not clear that we can relitigate 13 that issue. That is, we want to be able to come in somewhere 14 and say that the trustees did not fulfill their duties to us; 15 it was not in our best interest.

16 So if there is already a finding that what they did 17 was in our best interest, the opportunity to come in and object 18 on the 9019 on some other basis, because there will have 19 already been a determination that they acted in our best 20 interest, eviscerates the heart of what we are saying is the 21 problem.

22 Now, I think that's -- because if we are then 23 litigating for the first time at the 9019, whether our rights 24 have impaired by the trustees --

25 THE COURT: You can argue that in state court, I take

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

25

1 it, right?

2 MR. BAIO: Well, we won't be able to argue it anyway
3 after June 26th --

4 THE COURT: Oh, really?

5 MR. BAIO: -- if Your Honor makes those findings?

6 THE COURT: You're not going to be able to argue it in 7 state court?

8 MR. BAIO: I hope -- I don't know. I think that the 9 state court judge will say you had a bankruptcy court hearing, 10 you had an opportunity to take discovery, and there was a 11 ruling by a competent judge in a matter that you were before 12 saying that the actions were in your best interest. That's why 13 the trustees want it, Your Honor. It doesn't do anything for 14 them unless it has a preclusive effect against us.

15 And what they'll then say -- it's like dying a slow 16 death. We will have lost that right. Then at the 9019, we 17 won't be able to argue that they had breached their fiduciary 18 duty or violated their contractual obligations. What we'll be 19 able to say for other reasons that the 9019 should not be 20 approved. But that's not what the heart of our right is, which 21 we are simply trying to retain.

22 THE COURT: Why do you think the trustees have 23 breached their fiduciary duty in entering into the settlement?

24 MR. BAIO: Because we believe that FGIC had made 25 announcements that the amount that they believed should have

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

26

1 been received by our clients is in excess of fifty percent more 2 than what the settlement agreement achieves. We will be losing 3 the money, the difference between the 252 million dollars and 4 what we think is, when you look at the filings by the experts, 5 at least the piece that we were able to see, that it should be 6 350 million.

7 THE COURT: You have no assurance of any amount under 8 your scenario. You have experts who are doing estimates of 9 future losses and the financial circumstances of FGIC and are 10 prepared to offer expert testimony from your standpoint of what 11 you ultimately you believe you'd be able to recover --

12 MR. BAIO: Yes.

13 THE COURT: -- absent a settlement.

14 MR. BAIO: And they're also --

15 THE COURT: Absent a settlement.

16 MR. BAIO: Correct.

17 THE COURT: Correct?

18 MR. BAIO: Absent a settlement, but our settlement.

19 THE COURT: And a settlement --

20 MR. BAIO: We're not settling, and absent the 21 commutation.

22 THE COURT: Well, whose rights are being settled? The 23 trustees' or yours?

24 MR. BAIO: Ours, in connection with the insurance 25 policies; the trustees' hold them for our benefit. Those are

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

27

1 what are being compromised and they're being compromised so 2 that others will gain an advantage on our backs. That's what 3 we are prepared to prove if we can get the discovery. And we 4 don't think --

5 THE COURT: So what hearings have you had in the state 6 court at this stage? Do you have a discovery schedule? Does 7 Justice Ling-Cohan know that you're about to go to war before 8 her?

9 MR. BAIO: We have nothing at this point, Your Honor.
10 And it's not even clear that we have standing.

11 I know everybody in this court is granting us -- not 12 Your Honor, but the counsel.

13 THE COURT: Well, I haven't agreed to anything.

14 MR. BAIO: I understand. I didn't mean Your Honor. I 15 meant counsel are saying what we have rights to do. It is not 16 clear at all. We will pursue them.

17 All we want is not to be precluded from advancing our 18 fundamental claim that we are being -- our rights are being 19 compromised without any gain for us. That's the main -- that's 20 the heart of it.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MR. BAIO: And if it's to be deferred and we can take 23 discovery in a reasonable period of time and then Your Honor 24 wants --

25 THE COURT: You know, your idea of a reasonable period

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

28

1 of time and my idea of a reasonable period of time are vastly 2 different, I'll tell you that right now, Mr. Baio.

3 MR. BAIO: I understand.

4 THE COURT: This is moving forward.

5 MR. BAIO: I understand. I'm just talking -- right
6 now we have three depositions scheduled for tomorrow. We don't 7 have a single document. We haven't seen -- we don't get to 8 take their experts. We don't get to do a 30(b)(6) which would 9 be -- we want to know what the evaluations were in giving away 10 our rights. And we have one day with three declarants, some of 11 whom may know nothing about that.

12 So we think it's unfair. And it is driven because of 13 the findings. And the findings, the exclusion that they have 14 suggesting that we will preserve all of our rights -- if we 15 would preserve them, why do they get the findings in the first 16 place? Those findings must mean something.

17 THE COURT: You know, Mr. Baio, we're dealing with 47
18 out of -- this is number 900; I thought it was 500. But there 19 are a lot of trusts that are involved that you've got nothing 20 to do with, that FGIC has nothing to do with. The global 21 settlement, the mediation, affects all of the trusts, other 22 monoline insurers as well that resolve claims.

23 So you've got -- you're entitled to your rights. I'm 24 not -- I don't disagree with that, okay. But your little piece 25 of this, you're threatening to derail a very, very large

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

29

1 process of which you have one little piece of, okay. You're 2 entitled to your rights and I'm not steamrolling your rights, 3 okay. But to have you come in less than ten days before a 4 hearing at which the PSA is going to be considered by the 5 Court, so -- anyway --

6 Let me hear -- Mr. Mr. Johnson, I have some more 7 questions for you.

8 Thank you, Mr. Baio.

9 MR. BAIO: May I -- okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: So my basic question. You know, Mr. Baio 11 says they're going to be precluded from challenging the 12 trustees' good faith in connection with the 9019. Agree or 13 disagree?

14 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, the whole import --

15 THE COURT: No --

16 MR. JOHNSON: -- of the proposed language --

17 THE COURT: -- Mr. Johnson --

18 MR. JOHNSON: No, Your Honor, the --

19 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson --

20 MR. JOHNSON: -- answer is no, Your Honor, if the --

21 THE COURT: -- I want -- my question is a very clear 22 question and if possible, I want a very clear answer. Then you 23 can go on and give your explanation.

24 Will Monarch and Stonehill be precluded at the 9019 in 25 this court from challenging the trustees' good faith in

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

30

1 entering into the settlement?

2 MR. JOHNSON: I believe that is not the case, Your 3 Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. JOHNSON: I believe that the import of what has 6 been proposed by the debtors is --

7 THE COURT: And you're speaking for all of the trusts 8 for which -- that are wrapped by FGIC? MR. JOHNSON: Yes, Your 9 Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. I mean, that seems to be the 11 answer. I mean --

12 MR. JOHNSON: That would be a factual finding, Your 13 Honor. Good faith -- the good faith of the trustees would be a 14 factual finding. And the import of the language that's in the 15 modified proposed order is to carve out --

16 THE COURT: Okay, I just --

17 MR. JOHNSON: -- factual findings for the 9019.

18 THE COURT: I don't want -- if I go ahead and approve 19 the PSA with the language that the debtors propose to add, I 20 want to be clear, based on your answer to my question, you will 21 not argue that the investors are precluded from challenging the 22 good faith of the trustees in entering into the settle -- this 23 portion of the settlement? When I say "this portion", with 24 respect to FGIC. And you agree with that?

25 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor.

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

31

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. BAIO: And, Your Honor, I assume it's --

3 THE COURT: Mr. Baio?

4 MR. BAIO: -- it's more than the good faith and also 5 that we can challenge that it was not in our best interest. In 6 other words, we can challenge --

7 THE COURT: Hold on.

8 MR. JOHNSON: Same answer, Your --

9 MR. BAIO: -- the finding.

10 MR. JOHNSON: Same answer, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Same answer.

12 MR. BAIO: Same answer.

13 MR. JOHNSON: I can short -- yeah, I will shortcut:
14 Same answer.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Baio? You heard it? Did you 16 get a transcript?

17 MR. BAIO: May I confer for --

18 THE COURT: Yes, go ahead.

19 MR. BAIO: -- one minute, Your Honor?

20 THE COURT: Please go ahead.

21 MR. BAIO: Thank you.

22 (Pause)

23 MR. BAIO: And, Your Honor, we are not precluded from 24 taking any other action against the trustees, correct? I 25 assume that's --

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

32

1 THE COURT: No.

2 MR. BAIO: -- a given?

3 THE COURT: I don't -- no. I don't know what you're 4 talking about, Mr. Baio, okay? If you're -- what action are 5 you planning to take?

6 MR. BAIO: If they breach their fiduciary duty to us.

7 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Baio, we're going to have a 8 hearing on 9019. You've heard that you're not precluded from 9 challenging good faith or best interests, at the time of the 10 hearing. If you're about to launch some other war against the 11 trustee, if they think they have -- if they think I have any 12 power to stop it, I might, okay? As far as I'm concerned, 13 there's a schedule -- let me -- why don't you both sit down --

14 MR. JOHNSON: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: -- okay? From the start -- when I say 16 "from the start", when I first read the PSA and the term sheets 17 and saw the provisions with respect to the findings that the 18 trustees are seeking, I had questions about it. At the status 19 conference after the PSA was entered into -- there was a status 20 conference the following week; I don't remember, it was Tuesday 21 or Wednesday or something like that, of the following week -- I 22 focused in on that. And I made clear -- I moved up the date by 23 which the trustees had to submit evidence in support of the 24 findings, and recognized there may well be discovery. And I
25 believe then, I believe now, that discovery should be limited

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

33

1 with respect to the issues at the June 26th hearing to approve 2 the PSA, because -- I said this -- our phone conversation on 3 Friday was not on the record; it focused on discovery issues, 4 and I do those generally off the record. But I'll repeat in 5 substance what I said then. It was my view, when the PSA was 6 first presented, that whatever the outcome on -- what the PSA 7 seeks to do is bind the parties to the agreement, to support a 8 plan consistent with the terms of the term sheets, and it gives 9 the parties to the PSA various rights to withdraw, various 10 things don't happen, milestones that had to be achieved, et 11 cetera.

12 Assuming the PSA is approved, disclosure statement and 13 plan is going to be forthcoming hopefully soon. There'll be a 14 confirmation hearing. Because of FGIC's unique status -- and 15 by that I mean it has the rehabilitation proceeding going in 16 state court, it requires the approval of the state court -- I 17 was told then, and I still understand now, that there was a 18 need to expedite consideration of the issues with respect to 19 FGIC, apart from the 9019s that would be embodied in a plan.

20 I don't -- and I recognize that the findings that had 21 been requested with respect to the trustees raise a different 22 set of issues for the Court to consider at an appropriate time.
23 And I'll do that. But it does seem to me, from the telephone 24 communication on Friday and from reviewing both letters before 25 today's hearing, that the issues that you raise really go to

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

34

1 the approval of the 9019, either by this Court or by the 2 rehabilitation court. And I don't plan to turn the June 26th 3 hearing into a trial of the issues that are going to have to 4 be -- that may have to be determined -- whether they have to, 5 we'll see -- either by this Court or by the state court.

6 One of the things I would like to do, and I'm going to 7 ask now whether I hear -- I may do it anyway, but I want to 8 hear whether anybody has any objection: I would like to call 9 Justice Ling-Cohan and communicate with her, not about the 10 substance of what the ruling would be but about what procedures 11 are going to be followed in the two courts, since approvals by 12 both courts are required. At the time of the initial status 13 conference after the PSA was entered, with respect to some 14 other -- there are some other issues under the PSA that require 15 approval of more than one court. Some of the securities 16 litigation claimants requires under -- Judge Baer in the 17 district court needs to grant an approval in a class action, 18 and I have to grant approval as well. And I raised the issue 19 then about whether there'd been any discussion about joint 20 hearings or procedures that would follow.

21 So it is -- and I'll listen to any objections from 22 you. What I would like to do is call Justice Ling-Cohan and 23 talk with her about what the procedures are. To the extent 24 there is discovery with respect to either the 9019 or the 25 proceeding before her and the rehabilitation court, discovery

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

35

1 should be coordinated; it should only be done once. If there 2 are issues about standing in the state court, that's obviously 3 for her to decide, not for me. But I want, to the fullest 4 extent possible, to have -- to coordinate the proceedings so 5 that if there are depositions, they only happen once.

6 I, as a regular matter, limit the length of 7 depositions, the number of depositions, the scope of document 8 discovery. I'm not speaking now to what discovery may be 9 relevant for the 9019 in this court. As it was discussed on 10 Friday, and I think that the debtors' counsel communicated this 11 to the investors' counsel, prior to the hearing on the 26th 12 with respect to the FGIC settlement is just a status 13 conference, not for approval of the FGIC settlement.

14 I don't want you to wait until the 26th to begin these 15 discussions. You need -- from the letters, it's obvious that 16 the investors want much broader discovery with respect to the 17 9019. And you talked about trying to do it now rather than 18 later, and I'm not going to permit it now. But I want -- you 19 need to try and coordinate now what discovery you're going to 20 take, what the timetable is going to be. I don't want to -- 21 let's not wait until June 26 to hear about it. To the extent 22 you can resolve all of your issues about discovery for the 23 9019, you ought to do that; to the extent you can't, the 24 Court'll do that in subsequent conferences. I generally handle 25 discovery disputes, as I did on Friday, in telephone

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

36

1 conferences; sometimes the parties come in. I don't want
2 briefing on discovery disputes; I'm generally able to resolve 3 it without it.

4 But I don't know how many additional parties are 5 involved in the state court proceeding. I guess the -- I know 6 there are additional parties; I don't know whether you've 7 talked with them about what your plans are for the state court, 8 but I want all that coordinated. I mean, if there's discovery
9 that's going to go on, fine. I put limits on what I'll permit, 10 but that's -- and I don't know what the state court judge'll 11 decide what she wants to do, but I want to have an early 12 communication with her.

13 And in other matters, I've had joint hearings. If 14 Justice Ling-Cohan wants to have a joint -- is willing to have 15 a joint hearing regarding discovery and procedures, fine; if 16 she doesn't, that's fine. I'm not -- I don't force anybody to 17 do anything. But it's been beneficial when I've done it in 18 other matters, with state courts and federal district courts.

19 So -- okay, so that's what I want to say.

20 Mr. Baio, is there anything else you want to say now?

21 MR. BAIO: Yes, Your Honor. One --

22 THE COURT: Go ahead.

23 MR. BAIO: One more thing.

24 THE COURT: Please. Go up to the microphone.

25 MR. BAIO: And, Your Honor, proceeding as you've

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

37

1 described, speaking to the state court judge seems appropriate.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. BAIO: But I'm going to try one more time --

4 THE COURT: Go ahead.

5 MR. BAIO: -- with our concern. The carve-out 6 language that they are proposing suggests that for all other 7 purposes, beyond the carve-out, we're bound by those findings.

8 THE COURT: So you raise two issues with me: You 9 raise issue about good faith and best interests.

10 MR. BAIO: Yes.

11 THE COURT: And Mr. Johnson, with respect to both 12 those points, agreed that you're not precluded from challenging 13 good faith or best interests.

14 MR. BAIO: Anywhere.

15 THE COURT: All I can deal with is before me. I 16 can't -- I don't control what the state court does. I only -- 17 I'm dealing with what's before me. I had a clear statement 18 from Mr. Johnson that there would be -- and I -- look, first 19 off I'd say the language that the debtor proposed -- I was 20 fairly confident that that would be the import of it, that you 21 wouldn't -- there wouldn't be preclusive effect. But so that 22 we'd have greater clarity, you can order a transcript.

23 Mr. Johnson stated very clearly -- he said very 24 clearly with respect -- well, he said clearly as to both --

25 MR. BAIO: That --

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

38

1 THE COURT: -- good faith and best interests. What 2 are the other -- what other --

3 MR. BAIO: No, it's just those two --

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. BAIO: -- Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And you --

7 MR. BAIO: But --

8 THE COURT: -- you got a clear statement on the 9 record.

10 MR. BAIO: Okay. And it's in any proceeding? In 11 other words, not just --

12 THE COURT: Before me. I can't -- I just said it 13 again: I can't control what happens in the state court. I can 14 only control what happens before me, Mr. Baio.

15 MR. BAIO: But the findings that you're entering, Your 16 Honor, are --

17 THE COURT: Mr. Baio --

18 MR. BAIO: -- by you.

19 THE COURT: -- I'm -- yes, they are, and they're -- 20 it's not a final order, and --

21 MR. BAIO: Well, you can have --

22 THE COURT: -- it's a step -- no, it's an 23 interlocutory order in the sense that I have to go ahead and 24 have a 9019; I got to have a disclosure statement approved; I 25 got to have a plan confirmed. If the plan doesn't get

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

39

1 confirmed, it's all of no import here.

2 MR. BAIO: I understand --

3 THE COURT: Okay?

4 MR. BAIO: -- all that, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: That's why it's interlocutory.

6 MR. BAIO: All I'm -- all I am trying to be sure that 7 I've minimized -- perhaps the transcript does that, but this 8 language does not --

9 THE COURT: Well, I -- it does.

10 MR. BAIO: -- is that --

11 THE COURT: It does.

12 MR. BAIO: Well, it says that it allows us to object 13 at the 9019 --

14 THE COURT: Okay --

15 MR. BAIO: -- and for the disclosure statement. It 16 doesn't say for any other purposes.

17 THE COURT: What other purposes do you want? What 18 other purposes --

19 MR. BAIO: Well, it may be in the state court 20 proceeding.

21 THE COURT: I just told you, I can't preclude -- I 22 can't bind the state court to anything.

23 MR. BAIO: But you can limit your findings so that 24 they can't be used by the parties elsewhere; that's all.

25 THE COURT: Anybody else wish to be heard?

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

40

1 Mr. Johnson, come on up.

2 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, because I think we're the 3 most immediately impacted, I just want to --

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MR. JOHNSON: -- be sure I understand the import of 6 what you've talked about this morning, and that is that we are 7 not going to rush headlong into depositions this week but, 8 instead, work on a coordinated schedule so that we only do this 9 once and not twice or even --

10 THE COURT: Well, I do believe --

11 MR. JOHNSON: -- three times.

12 THE COURT: -- the depositions of the declarants needs 13 to go forward.

14 MR. JOHNSON: And will that be limited, Your Honor, to 15 issues other than the 9019? I'm trying to understand, Your 16 Honor, what -- I think the concern the trustees have is that we 17 not have multiple opportunities --

18 THE COURT: Well, you --

19 MR. JOHNSON: -- to be questioned on --

20 THE COURT: -- you've requested --

21 MR. JOHNSON: -- the 9019.

22 THE COURT: -- specific findings. And you could -- 23 and it's fair game to examine the declarants on each of the -- 24 on anything that's covered by their declarations as to which 25 you've asked the Court to make findings. Okay? And I -- at

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

41

1 some point today, I thought you had reached an agreement on 2 Friday as to the scope of appropriate document discovery.
3 You'll work out the protective order; I have confidence you'll 4 do that; if you can't, I'll -- you'll get that resolved. So 5 you'd produce the documents attorneys-eyes-only for now and 6 work out the terms of the protective order.

7 But what are you -- I'm concerned that you're 8 overreaching now.

9 MR. JOHNSON: Well, Your Honor, I had understood that 10 you understood the concern we have about multiple shots at 11 this. And we don't think this is the appropriate forum next 12 week --

13 THE COURT: Look, if you want me to make --

14 MR. JOHNSON: -- to get into the --

15 THE COURT: -- if you wish to have me --

16 MR. JOHNSON: -- details of the commutation payment.

17 THE COURT: If you --

18 MR. JOHNSON: And I'm concerned that this week will 19 turn into a discovery on the commutation payment, that will 20 then not really be the subject of next week's PSA hearing but 21 will just be a preliminary to getting the discovery in the 22 context of the 9019, which is really where that discovery 23 should be occurring.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, through the benefits of being 25 able to search a PDF on an iPad, I searched through and found

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

42

1 everyplace where "FGIC" or "commutation" is mentioned. And 2 it's in the PSA, okay? And so I'm being asked to approved a 3 PSA that includes -- there's, like, a half a dozen references 4 to FGIC and commutation, okay? And to the extent that that 5 issue -- those issues have been put in issue for the hearing on 6 June 26, they are relevant, okay? That isn't the same thing as 7 approval of a 9019 settlement, but -- you obviously negotiated 8 to include language in the term sheets, specific to FGIC, 9 specific to commutation, specific to capping how much FGIC
10 would have to pay. Okay? So I'm not excluding the discovery 11 on that. I've said the declarants -- the declarations are on 12 file; the depositions are scheduled. Whoever's got the 13 documents better get the documents produced so that this stuff 14 can move forward. We're going forward on June 26th.

15 So if you want to extract from the PSA and its 16 attached-to term sheets anything related to FGIC, yeah, fine.
17 Okay, then you can narrow what the discovery is. But it's in 18 there, okay? It's signed. That's the -- that's what I'm being 19 asked to approve. What it would do is require the parties to 20 the PSA agreement to go forward and support a plan that 21 includes the agreed-upon terms of a plan. Okay?

22 And I made the comment earlier; I'm not sure why the 23 investors want to come to the party on June 26 but, if they 24 believe that they should and you're not objecting, fine, go 25 ahead. But I'm not going to permit duplicative discovery,

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

1 okay? You get one bite at the apple, unless you all agree, for 2 purposes of the -- and it may make sense to do that, that you 3 all agree, for purposes of this initial round, they'll only be 4 questioned on certain subjects and the investors reserve their 5 right to further examine the trustees on the broader issues 6 that come up in the 9019. That I will fully understand, okay?

7 It does seem to me that the issues on June 26 are 8 fairly narrow, okay? And the discovery between now and the 9 hearing should be narrowly tailored to address the issues for 10 the 26th. And to the extent that the issues are broader with 11 respect to approval of the 9019, approval of this settlement in 12 the rehabilitation court, I'm not going to -- don't think 13 you're going to come back and say, 'But, Judge, they already 14 had the discovery in connection with the PSA.' I'm not going 15 to pre-judge it until -- you ought to try and work this -- you 16 ought to be able to work this out. Okay?

17 MR. JOHNSON: Understood, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Anyone else wish to be heard? Come on up.
19 Let's go; I got a calendar at 10 o'clock.

20 MS. ALVES: Your Honor, Arlene Alves with Seward &
21 Kissell, on behalf of U.S. Bank. We have a very narrow request 22 relating to the proposed deposition of our client. The 23 business person at U.S. Bank, who's been involved in this case 24 from May of last year, works out of Chicago; she's a new 25 nursing mother with a four-month-old infant, and we had

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

44

1 requested of Willkie, as an accommodation, that her deposition 2 be tele -- be through videoconference. Alternatively, if they 3 would like to, they could come to Chicago.

4 THE COURT: They can do one of two things: You can 5 either agree to do it by videoconference, or you can go to 6 Chicago. Okay? I'm not going to require a new mother to come 7 to New York for the deposition. Okay?

8 MS. ALVES: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 Come on up. Let's go.

11 MR. SIDMAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Howard Sidman 12 from Jones Day, for FGIC. I just want to understand the -- for 13 purposes of your ruling. The counsel for Monarch and Stonehill 14 had sought discovery and document requests on FGIC as well as 15 other third parties, and they also are after -- saying they 16 weren't going to do it on Friday. They've now -- this is over 17 the weekend -- said they want to continue with depositions of 18 FGIC in connection with --

19 THE COURT: I'm not going to permit the depositions.

20 MR. SIDMAN: I'm sorry?

21 THE COURT: To the extent -- I'm not going to permit
22 the depositions. To the extent that there are relevant 23 documents, I do want FGIC to produce the documents. If you 24 can't resolve -- hopefully you've narrowed the scope of the 25 document request.

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

45

1 MR. SIDMAN: Well --

2 THE COURT: Go ahead.

3 MR. SIDMAN: -- Your Honor, we sent them a letter on 4 Friday afternoon, because the reality is the documents at issue 5 here, and the ones that the trustee used to evaluate the 6 settlement --

7 THE COURT: Right.

8 MR. SIDMAN: -- are in the hands of the trustee. So 9 we said there are no other documents --

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. SIDMAN: -- that we had that were --

12 THE COURT: Work that out.

13 MR. SIDMAN: -- available.

14 THE COURT: You ought to be able to work that out, 15 okay? With respect -- they don't have to be produced twice, 16 okay? There's a very short amount of time available. There is 17 going to be a 9019. There's going to be more fulsome discovery 18 for the 9019. Okay? The issues for the 26th are much 19 narrower. But -- I don't have any doubt that you'll proceed in 20 good faith. And when you say the documents are already in the 21 possession of the debtor, most of the debtor's documents have 22 already been put in digital format, searchable, et cetera.

23 Okay?

24 All right, let me hear next counsel.

25 MR. GARRITY: Can I just get confer --

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

46

1 THE COURT: Yeah. Go ahead.

2 MR. GARRITY: -- one second?

3 THE COURT: Sure.

4 (Pause)

5 THE COURT: Mr. Garrity?

6 MR. GARRITY: Good morning, Your Honor. Jim Garrity
7 from Morgan Lewis, on behalf of Deutsche Bank Trust Company 8 America (sic), Deutsche Bank National Trust Companies (sic), as 9 trustee. Your Honor, we're not trustee for any of the wrapped 10 trust. We've no relationship. We have no -- not party to the 11 agreement.

12 We've discussed with Mr. Baio the following: that 13 after they take the depositions of the trustees who are party 14 to the agreement, if he believes -- if Monarch and Stonehill 15 believe that there's a need to come back to Deutsche Bank to 16 take discovery of Deutsche Bank, we would meet and confer and 17 try to resolve it. We frankly -- we're not party to the 18 negotiations.

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MR. GARRITY: So I think we're just going to put that 21 off to the side for a moment.

22 THE COURT: Put it off to the side. I don't exactly 23 see why you're being deposed in connection -- when none of the 24 trusts were wrapped with FGIC -- by FGIC. Okay?

25 MR. GARRITY: Thank you, Your Honor. I'm --

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

47

1 THE COURT: All right.

2 MR. GARRITY: I'm sure we will work it out.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 MR. GARRITY: Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Next. Come on up.

6 MR. KIBLER: John Kibler from Allen & Overy, 7 representing HSBC Bank USA. We have a very similar issue to 8 Deutsche Bank in the sense that we don't have any FGIC wrapped 9 trusts. We received a notice of deposition and we responded 10 with a letter essentially stating that we think the other 11 trustees are in a better position to provide information with 12 respect to that. We have not heard from the other side since 13 then. So we're just in the same position, I guess, that 14 Deutsche Bank is.

15 MR. BAIO: Same arrangement, Your Honor.

16 MR. KIBLER: That'd be great.

17 THE COURT: All right, thank you.

18 MR. KIBLER: So there's no deposition on schedule?

19 MR. BAIO: Correct.

20 MR. KIBLER: Perfect.

21 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

22 MR. CHRISTENSEN: Your Honor, Dale Christensen from 23 Seward & Kissell, for Law Debenture. Our is a similar 24 situation, although we believe we have one wrapped trust; we 25 have a sort of special relationship with Wells Fargo. It's our

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

48

1 understanding that Monarch's counsel has agreed to wait until 2 they've concluded the depositions of the principal trustees and 3 then determine whether they want to take an additional 4 deposition of us.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Baio?

6 MR. BAIO: Same answer.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Okay, anybody else wish to be 8 heard? Mr. Kerr.

9 MR. KERR: Your Honor, Charles Kerr of Morrison &
10 Foerster again, on behalf of the debtor. In light of the 11 discussion this morning, maybe I'll ask counsel on it, is 12 whether or not the deposition of Mr. Kruger is necessary.

13 Mr. Kruger --

14 THE COURT: Look, work that out outside of court. I'm 15 not going to --

16 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We'll work it out.

17 MR. KERR: We'll work it out.

18 THE COURT: I'm not going to --

19 MR. KERR: Okay, thank you.

20 THE COURT: He's the CRO and I'm not going to deal 21 with that now. You ought to be able to work it out.

22 Let me just look at the calendar.

23 (Pause)

24 THE COURT: Okay, I'd like to have a telephone 25 conference this afternoon at 5 o'clock, just to see what the

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

49

1 status is. I mean, I think -- with respect to the issues
2 raised by the two letters, I think it should be clear, but to 3 make it crystal clear. Monarch and Stonehill's -- I want to 4 call them objections; there's no -- I mean, I have the letters 5 from both Willkie Farr and from the debtor. The objections to 6 the PSA hearing procedures and discovery are overruled to the 7 extent that the language proposed by the debtors, as contained 8 in their June 16th letter on page 4, will be included in any 9 order approving the PSA, assuming that the Court approves the 10 PSA.

11 As made clear on the record, Mr. Johnson, representing 12 the trustees for the FGIC wrapped trust, stated on the 13 record -- and you can all order a transcript about it -- that 14 the trustees do not contend that any findings that the Court 15 makes in connection with approval of the PSA, if it is 16 approved, will have any preclusive effect in the 9019, or in 17 plan confirmation, with respect to the good faith and best 18 interests of the trustees in entering into the PSA and in 19 supporting a plan that incorporates its terms.

20 This ruling is only intended to be applicable to this 21 proceeding, and "this proceeding" meaning the ResCap bankruptcy 22 proceedings in this court. I can't make any decision that has 23 any binding effect on a state court.

24 I did ask whether counsel have any objections to my 25 discussing with Justice Ling-Cohan coordination of proceedings.

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

50

1 Mr. Johnson, I think, indicated that he had no objection. But 2 let me ask debtors, investors, anybody else who wants to be 3 heard on this point. I don't plan to go into the substance of 4 what any determination is, but I do believe, as I indicated, I 5 think, since the issues ultimately may be different for 6 decision but they substantially overlap, and to the extent that 7 there's discovery, it ought to be coordinated so it's only done 8 once.

9 Mr. Kerr?

10 MR. KERR: Your Honor, Charles Kerr of Morrison
11 Foerster, on behalf of the debtor. We have no objection to 12 your contacting --

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. KERR: -- Justice Ling-Cohan.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Baio?

16 MR. BAIO: No objection, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anybody else wish to be heard 18 on that point?

19 (No audible response)

20 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you very much.

21 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right, so somebody set up the call;
23 let my chambers know. It will be an off-the-record call. I 24 just want to see whether you've worked out your remaining 25 discovery issues so we can get on with this. Okay? Thank you

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, ET AL.

51

1 very much, everybody. The Court's going to be in --
